Foreword

It is with great pleasure that we, the Senior Class of 1964, present the fifteenth edition of the MARTINIAN.

Recorded in this book are both the joys and sorrows that we have experienced this year. In future years we will look upon the pages of this book and relive the wonderful experiences we have accumulated during this year.

As you glance at it from time to time, we hope this edition will mean as much to you as it does to us.

Jane Brakefield
- Editor -

Then there were brought unto Him little children, that He should put His hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them. But Jesus said, "Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

- Matthew 19: 13-14

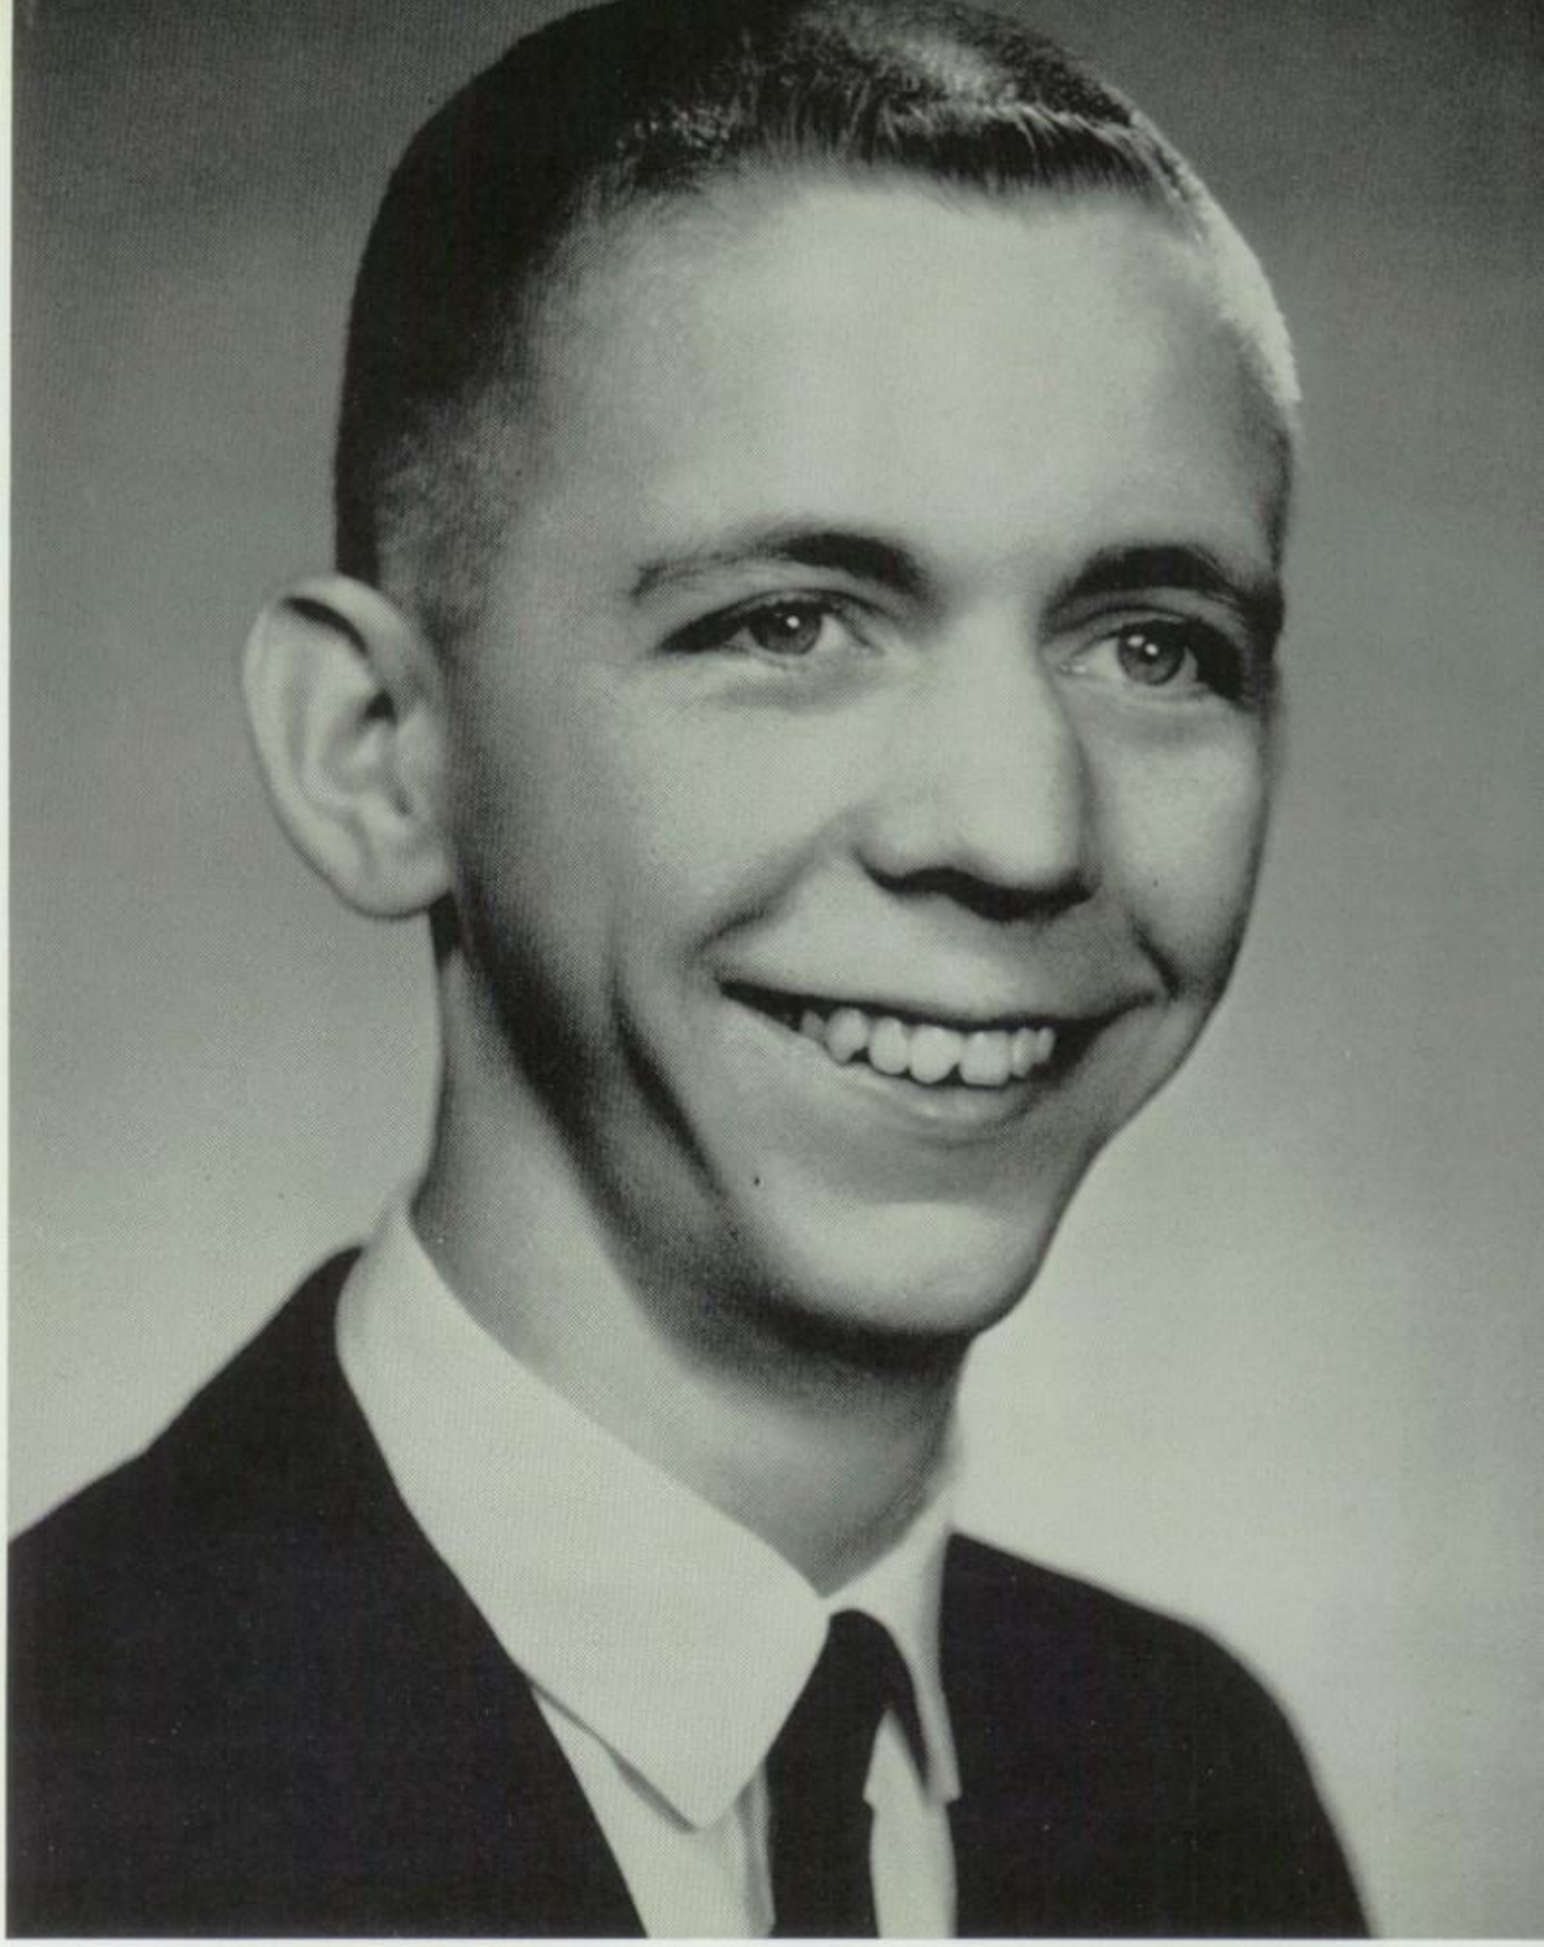
Dedication



REMEMBERING TOMMY

In his studies very proficient;
In extracurricular work efficient;
In athletics always sufficient;
And in comradeship magnificent.

It's hard to accept even yet.
We're reminded by cheeks, still wet
That for him the sun has set.
He's gone, but we'll not forget.

Principal's Message

The one great gift of education is that it gives us the torch of aspiration and the ambition to dream. It also gives us the will to continue the struggle, no matter how great the odds against us or how certain may seem defeat.

May the education you have received and that which you are yet to get give you independence of character and an intelligently discriminating mind and lead you far along moral, industrial, and intellectual roads. May the spirit of this school go with you and guide you to your goal.

What's to Be?

The future of my classmates is a difficult one to foresee, for our class is filled with unpredictable characters. I can predict their future only as my imagination would have it to be.

Jane Brakefield is now serving as the president of Florida State School for Girls.

Laura Busby, who is still undecided about which man to choose, now spends her time as a nurse at County General Hospital. I hear that Ben Casey now has a bid for her heart.

Joe Mullinax, whom I still think will come in first, is still considered the best catch in town. His chain of car repair shops across the country is now bringing in enough dividends to feather any girl's dream nest.

Jerry Sanford, that All-American Green Bay Packer, can be seen on television every Sunday evening selling Pepsi Cola and Fritos.

Sammy Smith and Benny Jones are working together directing the Three Stooges program. They use those same punches and pokes they used to use on "Bull" in physics class.

Norma Lockhart is the warden at a girls' reform school in Tennessee.

Mrs. Larry Busby and Mrs. Ralph Simpson, nee Shelia Lowery and Linda Kay Jackson, are nationally known. Linda's P.T.A. work and Shelia's success in the national bake-offs have made them both well known figures.

I talked to Shirley Busby, one of our local homemakers, last week and she said Doris Hosmer had accepted the proposal of a young man who is a missionary in Siberia. Shirley said that Doris is leaving the States to join him shortly.

Robert Patterson is presently the employee of Sam Key. Sam has a shop on Hatt Hill where he features the loudest mufflers in the county.

Tommy Sadberry was elected to the Senate last month after a long period of hard work. He always did like our democracy class.

Billy Richardson is the pride of Goodsprings. He is a reasearch chemist and has made great progress toward the dreamed-of cancer cure.

Beckie Gurganus Martin is head of the business department at Redstone Arsenal. The rumor is out that Bradley may be the next Astronaut to the moon.

Jimmy Sullivan, the Krafty Kar salesman, has recently managed to put Carl Price out of business.

Gretchen Harsany is now the most widely known female lawyer in the country. Her success is due in part to the clever business management and financial advice she gets from Dianne Key and Barbara Bolton, her joint business consultants.

Bonnie Earnest has finally settled down to establishing a home and family.

Keith Wright is the featured instructor for Charles Atlas. I see his muscles displayed on the back of every magazine I find.

Jo Ann Ferguson makes her residence in New York City, where she designs clothes for some of the most dignified personnel in town.

After graduation James (Montana) Short moved out West where he raises horses on his gigantic ranch.

Shirley Wallace is the buyer for a prominent Birmingham business establishment which features petite styles for small girls who want to look smaller.

Iwana Smith now owns a pickle plant across the highway from the shirt factory. She works in her own plant as a part time taster. Now there is a contented person!

Tommy Key and Shirley Gibson are the managers of that teen-dream cafe, Shag and Cuss's Place. Young people come from miles around to visit this hip joint. Tommy's success as an Olympic star and Shirley's recent award as the hostess with the mostest have been the determining factors in their restaurant's success.

Linda Minor is now a syndicated columnist for the Birmingham News. She writes a love-lorn column entitled "Minor's Miscellaneous."

As for me, I am now a psychology professor and part time counselor at Walker University.

BECKIE GURGANUS MARTIN

- Grumbler

Just Grumbling —

I believe the whole senior class is crazy for electing me the class grumbler. I don't grumble half as much as some of them. For instance, Jane Brakefield is constantly grumbling about physics and geometry. Believe me, if she were in shorthand, she would be glad to be taking physics and geometry. Miss White thinks we should spend all of our time doing shorthand homework. Maybe if she would get married, she wouldn't have so much time to grade papers.

I wish Barbara Bolton would cut off that long black hair. She thinks hers is prettier than mine; but it is not. And Laura Busby; why, she's not the cutest and most popular girl in our class. Guess who is???

Has anyone noticed Bonnie Earnest Gurganus, Shelia Lowery Busby, Linda Jackson Simpson, and Iwana Smith flashing those diamond rings around? Well, I have one, too. If Marilyn Earnest doesn't stop talking about "you know who," I'm going to wear cotton in my ears at school.

I wish someone would explain how Linda Minor got best looking. She is as ugly as I. And Dianne Key, quietest!!! I sit by Dianne in English class and she nearly bursts my eardrums every morning.

I don't see why Sam Key doesn't get up a little earlier. He is late every morning. And Norma Lockhart can stay out of school every day and get by with it.

If Gretchen Harsany doesn't stop studying so much, I am going to start studying so that I can beat her in English. That Benny Jones thinks he is so smart when he beats me on those old spelling tests that Miss White gives in English.

Since Shirley Gibson got 4th runner-up in the beauty contest, she thinks she is the prettiest girl in the senior class. And who would have ever thought that Joe Mullinax would get cutest; his thinking he is doesn't make him so.

Doris Hosmer should either get a job or move into the A & P. She stays up there all the time. And Tommy Sadberry; honestly, he tears up that school bus every morning. Even I could drive a bus better than he. I wish someone would let the air out of Jerry Sanford's head. It is so big since he made the All-County football team.

I think someone should get Shirley Wallace and Billy Richardson off "Cloud 9." They have been up there ever since they got Homecoming Queen and Escort.

James Short, your making a lot of points doesn't mean that you play the basketball game by yourself. Even under that smile, Shirley Busby, we know you have a few unfriendly thoughts. And Jo Ann Ferguson; everyone thinks she is so quiet and dignified; but you should see her out of class. She is as loud as I.

Keith Wright, you had better be careful when you go to Sherer's without a bodyguard. You might get hurt.

Sammy Smith, Jimmy Sullivan, and Robert Patterson one of these days you all are going to push Bull a little too far and then you had better "Watch Out."

That long, hard look of Tommy Key's really gets me. I wish he would smile and let me do the frowning.

I wish Mr. Wylie would quit telling those corny jokes. He thinks they're funny; but, believe me, they are not.

If Mr. Brakefield would slow down and quit rushing me so much, maybe I could get a job done ever once in awhile.

Now for the most wonderful person in the senior class; Beckie Gurganus Martin is the most beautiful, most lovable, and most outstanding girl of the whole bunch of seniors. Had I been Adam, the senior class could not have elected me the class grumbler.

THE ONE AND ONLY

There once was a spouse
Who never did grouse
About something being better
In his mother's house . . .
And his name, madam,
Was Adam.

- Selma Raskin

CLASS POEM

All our words are written,
And all our memories, dear,
Penned within the tome of school;
Our graduation near.

All our study books are closed,
And June is in the air;
Summer's soft, balmy breeze
Blows o'er our school, so fair.

With hopeful souls we have passed
Down through the stretch of years;
To this time of journey's end
We've come with joy and tears.

Martin, our loyal hymn of praise
Is chanted, loud, to thee;
Though years and distance intervene,
Warriors we'll ever be!

JANE BRAKEFIELD

Class Poet

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1964, do hereby declare our Last Will and Testament in the hopes that the up-coming Senior Class will find as much unity and happiness in their group as we have shared in our class through the years.

We, the graduating class of 1964, give to you, as was given to us, Miss White and Mr. Wylie, knowing that they will impart to you the inspiration and determination that was granted to us throughout this our Senior year.

I, Jo Ann Ferguson, will my ability to get Most Dignified to Jenny Sanford because if she gets it she won't know how she got it either!

I, Beckie Gurganus Martin, will my ability to get a set of wedding rings and also a husband at the beginning of my Senior year to Hollace Hyche. (Good luck with Jim.)

I, Gretchen Harsany, will to Martha Sanford the wonderful times we had during the winter of '63-'64 in the hope that we will remain close friends.

I, Doris Hosmer, will my ability to get "Most Polite" to Sue Jent and Reba Berry. Reba really needs it.

I, Keith Wright, will my ability to find something to do during class to Johnny Jent and Tommy Stockton.

I, Sam Key, will my ability to be late every morning to Gerald Key.

We, Jerry Sanford, Sammy Smith, and Benny Jones, will our ability not to bend over and take a paddling from Miss White to Everette Teske, Phil Jones, and Mike Robbins???

I, Bonnie Earnest, will my ability to get a boyfriend from Oakman to Bonnie Faye Chappell and Velma Hartley.

I, Marilyn Earnest, being of sound body and frail mind, will my vocal cords to Judy Gurganus in hopes that combined with hers she'll be the loudest cheerleader Martin ever had.

I, Joe Mullinax, will my ability to get cutest in the Senior Class to Billy Perry.

I, Robert Patterson, will my looks to David Brasfield.

I, Jimmy Sullivan, will Dewayne Estes my ability to throw elbows in hopes he can hit somebody.

We, Shelia Lowery and Linda Jackson, will our good looks, our mothers-in-law, and our ability to get married to Reeta Keeton and Nell Hartley.

I, Linda Minor, will my ability to make a mess of yells to Marsha Snow in hopes that she will do better than I did.

I, Billy Richardson, will the title of homecoming escort to Scott Short.

I, Iwana Smith, will my ability to get loudest to Nancy Ferguson or Vera Sexton.

I, Tommy Key, will all the fun I've had at Bill and Nell's Cafe and being class lawyer to Johnny Gross and Phillip Key.

I, Jane Brakefield, will my ability to be a good Senior Cheerleader partner to Voncile Wright, in hopes that she will enjoy it as much as I did.

We, Laura Busby and Shirley Gibson, will our ability to stay in trouble with our boyfriends all the time to Ann Short and Margie Chappell.

I, Barbara Bolton, will my ability to get sweetest to Getina Hicks.

I, Tommy Sadberry, will my ability to get left out of everything in the Senior Class to Gary Oliver and J. N. Goswick.

I, Dianne Key, will my ability to get the Quietest in Who's Who to Eva Key - that loud mouth.

I, Shirley Wallace, will some of my height to Judy Gurganus in hopes that both of us will grow taller.

I, James (Montana) Short, will my ability to give Coach Dotson headaches during basketball season to Jim Cook.

I, Shirley Busby, will Phylis Groves my ability to get Friendliest in order that we might make more friends.

I, Norma Lockhart, will my attendance record and quaint remarks to Drucilla Jones and Betty Chappell.

Class History

To me was given the task of revealing the history of the Class of '64 to the student body and parents.

In September, 1952, we, the class of '64, started our climb upward toward an education. We were very eager to learn and our teachers did a good job of teaching us. In the first grade our candidates for Elementary Homecoming Queen and Escort won first place. Slowly we had begun to march. It seemed at first that we would never reach high school but our time came and we became Junior High students.

In the seventh and eighth grades some of our students became members of the 4-H Club and the Library Club. Some of the boys participated in Junior High basketball.

When we became freshmen, many new and wonderful privileges were opened to us. We became eligible for the Dramatics and Thespian clubs sponsored by Mrs. Thomaston.

In our sophomore year we became eligible for the Beta Club, M Club, and Science Club. One of our girls became a cheerleader and several boys participated in football and basketball. Two of our boys won first and third runners-up in Mr. M.H.S.

When we became Juniors, we had to work harder. In the Mr. M.H.S. contest we again won two positions, second and fourth place runners-up. With Mrs. Thomaston as our sponsor we put on a Junior play, which we thought was as good a Junior play as ever given. We worked and slaved for the Seniors, looking forward to the Junior-Senior Banquet. We decorated the auditorium beautifully and gave the Seniors a very nice banquet.

And finally, we became big SENIORS! A few months and our high school education will be ended. We started our final year off right by winning Homecoming Queen and Escort. By coincidence they were the same two who won Elementary Homecoming Queen and Escort. Three of our girls are cheerleaders; five boys played "A" string football with one making All-County; and two boys played basketball.

Time has passed so rapidly, and soon we will be students no more unless we further our education by going to college. Thanks, faculty and parents, for your guidance and patience. You have done your job well. Because of you, we understand more and can make decisions by ourselves easier and more surely. Underclassmen, we hope your twelve years are as happy and enjoyable as ours were.

JANE BRAKEFIELD

Dear Jane,

Isn't it exciting to be named Homemaker of Tomorrow from your school? Congratulations to you, for this is a real honor.

It means that you have been selected as the girl in your class who possesses the most outstanding qualities of homemaking. Possibly, you may go on to be named Homemaker of Tomorrow for your state or even All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow for the whole country.

Whether or not this happens, you can be happy to have won this recognition and to have made your parents, teachers and friends proud of you.

The qualities you have shown are the best possible foundation for a happy and successful future as a real homemaker--the most important career a woman can have.

Cordially,

Betty Crocker
